ORFEN

Wolf Warrior of the High Mountains – Rank 6

Ability: In a battle with an enemy that is not a troll, Orfen has at least as many strength points as the “tens” numeral of his current space; if he has more strength points than the “tens” numeral of his current space, this ability has no effect.

In a battle with a troll, Orfen adds the “tens” numeral of his current space to his current strength points; this total is his strength for this battle.

Two new heroes have descended from the High Mountains to join the fight! Orfen and Marfa are seasoned Wolf Warriors who are loyal to King Brandur and his cause. Enjoy experiencing Andor all over again with this new character class.

This is a mini-expansion for Legends of Andor. It requires the Legends of Andor base game to play.

For more information about the game, visit www.legends-of-andor.com and immerse yourself in the fantastic world of Andor!

MARFA

Wolf Warrior of the High Mountains – Rank 6

Ability: In a battle with an enemy that is not a troll, Marfa has at least as many strength points as the “tens” numeral of her current space; if she has more strength points than the “tens” numeral of her current space, this ability has no effect.

In a battle with a troll, Marfa adds the “tens” numeral of her current space to her current strength points; this total is her strength for this battle.

Orfen and Marfa replace the dwarves Kram and Bait. When playing as Orfen or Marfa, use the yellow components of the dwarven characters.

Examples of the Wolf Warrior's Ability

Example: Orfen has 3 strength points, and he is currently in space 46 during a battle with a gor. He resolves the battle as if he has 4 strength points (do not move the wooden cube to reflect this).

Example: Orfen has 7 strength points, and he is currently in space 46 during a battle with a troll. He adds the 4 points to his 7 for a total of 11 strength points and resolves the battle as if he has 11 strength points.
